THE CITY IN BRIEF.

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

No Cars, No Meat.

Yesterday afternoon traffic was blocked on the city line for more than an hour. A disabled meat wagon did it.

Contraband.

Ching Fook, contraband Chinaman, was arrested yesterday by Chinese Inspector Jenkins. His hearing is set for Friday.

Referees Appointed.

Two referees in bankruptcy were appointed yesterday by United States Judge Welborn. They are C. C. Russell of Hanford, Kings county, and H. F. Starbuck of Santa Barbara.

Improvements at Van Nuys.

A large force of men is busy making improvements on the Hotel Van Nuys, Main street. Twenty new bathrooms are to be put in and refurnishing of various kinds will total $20,000.

Seeks Love's Count.

Charles Eytan of the Burbank Theater has offered a reward of $25 for the correct address of Franz von Schierbrand or for the name of the man's representative, who has been threatening Eytan since the publishing of the County's fall of Saturday night.

Main Street Sale.

Frank G. Schumacher is said to have secured, of the Title Insurance and Trust Company, a lot 37179 feet, on the east side of Main street, between Eighth and Ninth streets, with a small business building of nominal value compared with the ground; consideration named, $22,500.

Improvements.

A. J. Crawford has taken the contract to erect for Mrs. Anna H. Steen a two-story brick business block at Nos. 323-327 South Hill street. It will cost between $15,000 and $16,000. Dr. C. E. Stoner has let to Moskoff Bros. a contract to erect a three-story frame apartment building at Nos. 517-519 Temple street, for $7000.

Arcadia Hotel.

It appears that the alleged sale of the Arcadia Hotel at Santa Monica has not been completed. A. D. Shepard of San Francisco, manager of the Pacific Improvement Company, which owns the hotel, states that he gave an option on the property to O. B. Steen of this city, but the terms of the option have not yet been fulfilled.

For Newboys.

A newboys' meeting will be held in Volunteers' Hall, No. 128 East First street, this evening, under the auspices of Mrs. Francis Helen Fish. The speakers will be Rev. Edith Hill Booker of Pasadena, National evangelist of the W.C.T.U., and Mrs. Helen Griffith, president of the city federation. Mrs. C. H. Noll will give a flag drill and Mrs. Stella Chandler, Mrs. Henry Sparks and Little Annie Row will sing. Robbed by "Friends."

I. W. Hackney reported to the detectives yesterday that early Sunday morning he started in his room in the Reed House on East First street, and being too drunk to travel, he accepted the assistance of two supposed friends, who half-carried him to the hallway of the house, and then robbed him of all the money he had, about $25. He does not remember what the robbers looked like, and did not know about the robbery until last night, when he awoke.

Lumber Fall on Him.

Richard Grape, an employee of a planing mill at Thirty-third and Main streets, was seriously injured yesterday afternoon while removing lumber from a pile of lumber. The props of the pile slipped and a number of heavy boards fell on him, crushing him and knocking him to the ground. He sustained injuries to his back and legs which will confine him to his bed for several weeks. He was taken to the Receiving Hospital for treatment and later was removed to his home.

Carte's Rig Stolen.

Senator Henry E. Carter is bemoaning the loss of a highly-bred sports horse and a runaway buggy that were stolen from him under peculiarly aggravating circumstances. The horse, a week ago—just when the political air was beginning to clear—some knowing individual went down to Carter's ranch at Los Alamitos, and cut the barbed-wire fence in the pasture where Carter's high-stopper was grazing himself. The horse was then led to the barn, the door was forced, and then the animal was hitched up to a vehicle in which the very impudent thief drove away. Although handbills have been scattered throughout the county, nothing has yet been heard of either horse or buggy.

Riot on Street Car.

There was a small riot on a south-bound car of the Midway-avenue line of the Los Angeles Railway Company last night, which resulted in the arrest and severe injury of W. B. Fleming, and the arrest of George Easton, a dealer on Maple avenue. The two men were together, and one paid the other's fare. The conductor came again to them for their fares when Fleming remonstrated with him. Easton told Fleming to behave himself, and they started the fight in which several of the passengers and the motorman took part. Easton threw Fleming through the car windows, the glass cutting his head severely. Deputy Sheriff Sepulveda arrested both men, it being necessary to chase Easton several blocks. Both were charged with disturbing the peace.

THE TROUBLE OF TODAY

From the trouble of today
Dreaming, let us drift away!
Let us seek a world that seems Fairer than our fairest dream.
Leave the slumber of dead years
In the valleys of dead years
Reading, in the starless night
God's own litany of light!

From the trouble of today
Let us go and, thankful, say:
"Sinning, or of Love forgive me,
Sorrow brought us nearer heaven,
Thorns that pierce the wounded
Lead to pleasant paths and Lifted were the streaming eyes
To the promise of the skies!"

In the trouble of today
Let the winter find the May—
Waive from snow-white cold
Lilies of eternal light!
Find, where seemed but barren
Violets that dream of God.
Let us drift away—away,
From the trouble of today!

RATHER SEEDY.

A farmer had a seed for the
of his seed.
"Was a seed made of cedar?"
said I. "Pray, is there any Of a seed made of cedar?"
farmer. "Yes, indeed!"
I have never seen a cedar, but concede the speed
To exceed a cedar seed for the
of the seed."

THE UNIVERSAL STRUGGLE

One trumped the fells from duak.
The winds of God about him
One struggled in the south
In all the seething crowd
To one the day was living
To one 'twas but an empty
of the seed."

TRAIN INTO FLOOD LAND.

Last Night's Overland to Make the Passage.

Quick Repairs Achieved by Santa Fe's Workers.

'Southern Pacific's Line is All Clear Again.

Late reports from General Manager
Arthur G. Wells of the Santa Fe state that the temporary repairs in Kingman and Crozier cañons and at Bagdad have progressed so rapidly that the road is once more open for traffic through the flood district. Last night's overland out of Los Angeles will pass through Arizona as usual, and now that the congestion of trains has been relieved, all trains will be running on schedule time. The weather in Arizona is clear and hot, and no further storms are looked for.

General Manager Wells will arrive in Los Angeles this morning, after having spent many continuous hours of hard work in superintending the movements of the large construction gangs. It is said that a record has been established for fast cribbing and track-laying under difficult circumstances, the men working for twenty-four and even thirty-six hours at a stretch. For such service the company has been paying double time, and has given the laborers the best food and accommodations possible.

All of the detour trains have arrived in Los Angeles, eight in all having been sent over the Southern Pacific since the Bagdad cloudburst, and the trains on the way over the Arizona washed-out district will be but a few hours late, beginning yesterday afternoon.

EVENTS IN SOCIETY.

AN ANONYMOUS letter writer is turning the lives of many Los Angeles society girls into a fluttering panic.

Oh, that somebody would choke him!
Is he a disappointed beau? Is he a crank, or is he a girl?

His debut was made a short time ago when a Los Angeles girl burst into social fame on a trip in Northern California. She got a letter postmarked Los Angeles in which he told her (providing the letter wasn't written by a
"she") that she needn't think she was so much, anyhow. The writer said that for all her haughty "front," he knew a man who knew her father when he was almost in the gutter, etc., etc.

The girl got almost a rainstorm of these letters. They made her trip so unpleasant that she came home.

Since then other girls in Los Angeles have been receiving many letters of the same order.

Whoever the writer is, he seems to have a most unbecoming command of what racing men call "the dope," the facts and figures necessary to make up the record.

The girls who have received the letters say that they have not the slightest idea whom they may be from.

The principal peril seems to be the chance that the writer may get the letters mixed up. If the facts and the "dope" in one case should get into the wrong letter by mistake and go to some other girl—

For the Misses Massey.

ber, were guests. Mrs. Routman received a gift of a finger ring set with speech was made by William Young and she made a suitable response.

Cards were played, and there were a number of piano selections by Mrs.
Katherine Cook.

mony was conducted by Rev. C. C.

Notes and Personal.

Miss Maud Scott has gone to Stanford University. She is president of the Star and Crescent Society of the Los Angeles High School, and has for several years been connected with the Woman's Orchestra.

Mrs. E. McAdams of No. 755 Lake street was surprised by friends Thursday evening. A floral gift was presented.

Miss Florence D. Jago, daughter of Mr.
and Mrs. E. C. Dodge of No. 608 Burlington avenue, has returned to the State University.

Miss Mary Edwards of West Twenty-third street has returned from an extended eastern trip.

Miss Beatrice C. Philippi has gone to resume student life at Stanford University.

The rumor that Santa Catalina Island had been sold by the Banning Company, while not an original idea, gained wide circulation and received strong credence yesterday, on the streets and in downtown offices. Several persons reported to The Times
the "fact" that H. E. Huntington had purchased the famous resort, several others transmitted the statement that the Southern Pacific was the buyer, and from different sources came the intelligence that while both Huntington and the Southern Pacific had been bidding for the island, Senator Clark's Salt Lake Railroad had secured the Pacific Ocean plum.

On the streets the rumor became amplified as it spread, until few details were lacking to make it from all appearances a bona-fide "tip from the inside." Mr. Huntington, after negotiations extending over a period of months, had finally acquired possession of the property, including Catalina Island, all the Bannings' improvements
thereon, the Hotel Metropole, and Warrior, with their terminal facilities at San Pedro, etc., etc. But no one had heard the price. That was the one peculiar circumstance, for a sale that wasn't made never was made without Dame Rumor coming blithely to the front with full particulars of the cost thereof, whether the deal was such as to involve $15 or $15,000,000.

But Hancock Banning was yet to speak.

"No, sir; absolutely nothing in it,"
said he. "The island has not been sold—not for sale. The subject came up in conversation once, and I was present when Mr. Huntington said: 'I am in the business of building railroads, not handling resorts. Nothing interests me but railroads.' Ask him if he didn't say that. He has never negotiated for the purchase of the island, nor have we tried to negotiate its sale to anybody. The business, lock,
stock and barrel, is in our possession,
where we expect it to remain. We are quite positive we have it. Catalina is not in the market."

"DOVEY."

she had a white bank account, but it afterward appeared, it was just a test. Farmer Parr's affection. But he didn't answer as quickly as his mammoth desired, and on July 1 she penned the following:

My Dearest Loving Pat: I think that you don't care for me if that is the case you better send back my photo at once I told you about my fare to go there but I see that you don't care for me but if you really love me why don't you send me $45 dollars. I'm getting tired waiting for the $45. Your loving, MISS LIZZIE WARD.

It was apparent that Miss Lizzie was impatient over the monetary difficulty, for there were two "dovey-dovey" expressions, and she signed her letter. There were two postscripts to the letter, as follows:

"But sure to send me the money so I can go to see you."

A day or two after this letter was dispatched Miss Lizzie received a letter from her former lover containing $30, and on the 13th of July she wrote him in raptures. She spoke of his "precious letter," and said that the cash proved to her that he loved her as much as she did him.

"Now, dear," she wrote, "I have nothing to hold me here so I will leave after tomorrow and fly to you and love and true one." "I don't expect to see you before long," she wrote, "but I will come out soon to see my friends—Now dear I will say by-by and hope to see you before long. I will tell you to get on the train so you can meet me at the station. Yours for ever."

But business in connection with that 600-acre cattle run interfered, and Miss Lizzie didn't fly to the arms of her darling. Instead she stayed at home, and on July 17 wrote him another letter, in which she asked for $15, and told him that she was going to Los Angeles, but if he had money to spare to come out here she was going to leave her address so that he could follow her.

"I will leave word with my landlady," she wrote, "and give him $4 on your account when we get married I will pay you. Remember me to your dreams, etc."

That was the end of the final. Miss Lizzie Ward disappeared from Pasadena at least so far as Farmer Parr was concerned, and he failed to get in correspondence with her after long and severe cogitation he concluded that this unknown woman, while vowing such ardent affection, had been handing him a cold bird. It was hard, very hard to give up the hope of the $12,000, and the cattle on a thousand hills.

Farmer Parr addressed a letter to the "Sheriff of Palmdale," from which the following are some of the words: "I want the Law enforced on Cal if the Sheriff of that State is against such persons—I think that Miss Lizzie Ward have receive money from me under false statements according to her own letters."

IN SHERIFF'S HANDS. The "Sheriff of Palmdale," who is known as J. W. Smith, a deputy constable, forwarded Farmer Parr's letter, with the several inclosures, to Sheriff White. A number of big envelopes containing the letters of Miss Lizzie Ward to hold these same inclosures, after they shall have been used in "putting away" on the State Prison.

But it appears there is no law to reach such a case as this. And so the letters of Miss Lizzie Ward are now in the hands of the Sheriff of Palmdale, and the case is closed.

THE final round-up in the scholarship contest began yesterday in earnest. The flood of subscriptions and coupons that poured into The Times office exceeded that of any preceding day since the contest began. Nearly everybody on the list realized some gain in points, but the sensation of the day was furnished by Bertha Wilson of Santa Monica, whose increase for the day was $7,482, bringing her total up to 72,711, and taking her forward from thirteenth to ninth place. Miss Wilson owes most of her good fortune to the veterans at the Soldiers' Home, one of whom favored her with a subscription for six years, and another for five years and three months. This breaks the record for long-term subscriptions to The Times, five years being the limit heretofore reached. John A. D'Arcy is the man who pays for six years in advance, and E. L. French pays for a term of five years and three months. A few more boosts like that will place Miss Wilson among the High Five.

Laura Tugman of Hynes recovered seventeenth place from Frank Brooks. Rosa Glascock of Chatsworth moved up from twenty-ninth to twenty-sixth place.

Harry Watson went up from thirty-seventh to thirty-fifth place. Lester Howe moved forward forty-third place from Mary Broadhead.

The count was completed too late to permit of a more extended review of the score.

The coupon which was ordered out of the paper after last Sunday was printed again yesterday by mistake. It will not appear again. The contestants are entitled to the benefit of its appearance yesterday.

All coupons and subscriptions should be turned in as rapidly as possible now, so as to avoid delay in completing the count for the final score.

COLLEGE OF FINE ARTS.

DARVANZA'S UNIQUE INSTITUTION OF LEARNING.

More Commodious Quarters to Be Provided for it on Picturesque Site Overlooking the Arroyo Seco, if Gas Nuisance is Abated, Otherwise Hollywood Will Get New Building.

The Los Angeles College of Fine Arts at Garvanza, will soon be one of the largest institutions of its kind in Southern California.

Situated on a cliff overlooking the beautiful Arroyo Seco, and located near the center of a large city, it offers peculiar advantages to those desiring to enter the nature study classes. A short car ride carries the student into the Chinese section of Los Angeles, or an easy jaunt will bring the sketch artist within range of natural scenery scarcely rivaled in any country in the world.

The present school will be remodeled to meet the demands of the already large enrollment.

Applied art, which has gained recognition as a branch of fine arts, will be taught, and the student desiring to study applied mechanics will receive one of the most thorough courses in mechanical drawing offered in the West. Drawing, painting and illustrating classes will be conducted by the faculty, and the ambitious student will be enabled to study nature in trips to the mountains, the seashore and the mountains.

A three-year course of study is provided, and at graduation the student will receive a diploma entitling him to teach in the branches of study offered at the College of Fine Arts.

Registration will begin on September 12, and school will open with regular recitations on September 15.

PROPOSED NEW BUILDING.

Plans and specifications for an imposing new building, twice the size of the one now occupied by the college, have been prepared and will be carried into execution as soon as it is ascertained that the certain manufacturing interests will not be permitted to make further encroachments upon the picturesque Arroyo Seco region at Garvanza.

The proposed new structure will be built in mission style, with a dome roof surmounted with a tower twenty-five feet high. The main entrance will be located on the boulevard near the casino, and the visitor will enter directly the large reception hall, which is also to be used for lecture purposes. The plan of procedure outlined for the new year, but the faculty of the school are loath to begin the alterations and improvements until action has been taken on the petition presented by the citizens of the Board of Supervisors asking for the removal of the gas manufacturing plant and the smelter in the Arroyo adjacent to the college.

When the College of Fine Arts was first located, care was taken to choose a site that would afford easy access to the city, and at the same time would allow students the advantage of country life and mountain scenery for the field sketching classes. There seemed at that time some three years ago to be hardly a possibility that any of the manufacturing interests would invade the quiet Arroyo Seco.

MAY GO TO HOLLYWOOD.

Prof. W. M. Judson, dean of the College of Fine Arts, said yesterday: "Should the Lowe Gas Company be allowed to operate here, our school will be removed to Hollywood. We prefer, however, to stay in Garvanza, and will build at once if a satisfactory decision is rendered with regard to these public nuisances."

Speaking of the improvements proposed, Prof. Judson gave an entertaining account of his eastern journey, where many new ideas in the latest methods employed in the large art schools of the East were studied. These methods, which are to be introduced at the College of Fine Arts, will take various phases, such as the study of art tiling decoration, artistic book binding, and art pottery painting. Art expression in needlework will be exemplified along the lines employed by the Japanese. China decoration along entirely new directions will also be studied. The decoration of flat surfaces, in which the Japanese have excelled, will also be taught.

There will be a special department given over to the life study class, which has greatly outgrown its present quarters. Clay modeling from life studies will be part of the student's work.

ART MUSEUM.

The present auditorium of the school will be used as an art museum and will be thrown open to the public many notable and famous pictures will be on exhibition.

Prof. Judson is now completing an oil painting called "The Shipwreck." This picture will be exhibited in Los Angeles and throughout the larger cities of the United States. The picture is that of a ship settling on the rocks, while the crew in small boats and on pieces of the ship are rapidly leaving the wreck. The plan of the large art school will be provided that an idea of natural coloring may be obtained.

Prof. Judson says the citizens of Garvanza desire to keep the art school, and will do all in their power to aid him in his fight against the desecration of the beautiful natural park in the Arroyo Seco.
